

Georgia Gazette

radio

Georgia Gazette

HomePast Shows

- 2005
- 2004
- 2003
- 2002

Consumer Call-InConsumer ResourcesNew! Georgia GazetteForumAbout the ShowContact Us

September 22, 2006

This week on Georgia Gazette. Playwright Samuel Beckett is remembered by a Georgia theater company. Atlanta marks the 100th anniversary of one the most brutal race riots in the cities history and an independent filmmaker cracks open the world of so-called military "brats". Those stories and more this week on Georgia Gazette Friday at 3 and Sunday at 10.

Race for Governor

Tom Crawford with Capitolimpact.com talks with host Rickey Bevington about the current race for governor.

Teen Pregnancy

Reporter Jenee Henry examines teen pregnancy in the Hispanic community in Georgia.

Constitution Day

Mike Savage offers a sound portrait of students at Piedmont College who document Constitution Day.

Play

Rickey Bevington talks with Walter Asmus who came to Atlanta to direct the play "Beckett's Memories" at 7 Stages Theater. She also talks with cast members.

Gazette Quiz

Can you guess the answer to this week's Gazette quiz?
Tourists flock by the thousands to this town
When the weather gets cold and leaves turn brown
To revel in another country's tradition
And take in a Southern-style alpine vision.
Send your answer to gazette@gpb.org.

Race Riots of 1906

Philip Graitcer reports on the Race Riots of 1906 and how many still believe the legacy influences race relations in Atlanta.

Armstrong Center

Orlando Montoya talks with Armstrong Atlantic State University President Tom Jones about the new Armstrong Center opening this week.

Fish story

Georgia Gazette resident gardner and commentator Marianne Gardner has a whopper of a fish story.

Documentary

Host Rickey Bevington talks with Donna Musil about her documentary "Brats: Our Journey Home."

Fridays at 3 PM
Repeats Sundays at 10 AM on GPB Radio

Gazette@gpb.org

Support this Show!

Become a corporate underwriter.

Purchase books, videos, and CDs at Amazon and support GPB.

GPB productionsAll The Governor's MenConsumer Call-InThe ASO on GPBCover To CoverGeorgia GazetteThe Jazz SpotMidday MusicStudio GPB» Morespotlight

Georgia Gazette is produced by Susanna Capelouto and Emily Kopp with help from Gwen Clayton, Ashley Horn and April Fitz.

Program originally aired on Sep 22, 2006

©copyright 2005, Georgia Public Broadcasting • Contact Us 